ENLIGHTENMENT

by Tara

READ AT YOUR OWN RISK . . . for sincere seekers of Truth only!
(Reading may cause shock, ego death and Enlightenment.)

Did it never occur to you that . . . Everything you ever believed, ever learned, ever read - came from a thought in someone's head?

THE BEST GAME IN TOWN (But not the only dream)

Everybody is dreaming. Everyone thinks the dream is 'real'. They are not all having the same dream. There is a master dream operating that almost all the participants agree to. We will refer to that as, simply, 'The Dream'. This is the world of nature: Earth, Sky, Water, the Sun, Stars, Man and all living things seen and known by the senses. How did it all come to be . . . ? Ahh, now that is a question, and a key element in the plot of 'The Dream'.

There are innumerable variations playing within 'The Dream'. (You might call them belief systems.) There is usually a currently accepted favorite. Today it is Science. It has rightly been considered by some to be a religion. Former favorites, but still strong as subsidiaries, are the Judaic and Christian Religions. There have been many other leaders and contenders, to name a few: Nature and Pagan Religion, Occult Science, Vedanta, Buddhism, Islam and their offshoots. All of these had their day, evolved, split into factions, and were supplanted. Many are again gaining in popularity and getting a replay with modern revisions to suit a more sophisticated dreamer and loosely linked under the heading of 'New Age' . . . as the dreamers stir, and begin to awaken from 'The Dream'.

To be continued next week
