

A thought of the day in passing . . .

Ultimately . . .

We are everything - all the concepts, experiences and issues.

Relatively . . .

Everything exists in each of us - but not in equal degree and potential of development.*

(We don't each have to live out every issue . . . unless we make an issue of it.)

Note: Ultimate and Relative Reality is used to differentiate between 'All There Is' or the Oneness state of God, from the diverse worlds of appearance and all individual appearing beings.*

ENLIGHTENMENT

by Tara

Who and What Am I?

The man asked of God,
A pawn? A god? A fool?

All of those, was the reply.
Your world reflects you.

Mine too.
The world is my body.

I live, breathe and love
Through you.

"As above, so below."
