

A thought of the day in passing . . .

Everyone's truth is tailor made for them. It comes on cue as needed, selected from many possibilities, to serve until one is ready for a higher or more appropriate truth. I found it best to keep this in mind and never be stuck too long in a truth, however loved and comfortable, just because it was loved and comfortable, or to believe another's truth, however hallowed, greater than what my inner spirit revealed to me. This is a leap of faith that sometimes takes much courage.

ENLIGHTENMENT

by Tara

A 'Truth' must be pondered, then given up to the silence.

TRUTH CHANGES

All paths do not lead to a mountain top
What is true for me, may not be for you.
What was true for you once; may not be tomorrow.
Why then assume all the good words you've ever heard,
Even from the mouth of a sage, or writ on some holy page
Is true for you ... now, ever, or for always.
It isn't.
