

A thought of the day in passing . . .

HAPPINESS IN LIFE

People have three primary obligations in life - generally occurring in the following order; and each must do it in and by themselves:

Find their talents and increase them (As in the parable of the ten talents of Biblical lore)

Find their purpose in life – (Generally in work they love that embodies those talents)

Find God (And to the degree possible, themselves, beyond the ego-personality)

August 2, 2009 Day 25

By Tara, all rights reserved by Bhagavan Fdn.

The book; ENLIGHTENMENT, will be reprinted page by page daily on this site free and in full. For the less patient, the book may be purchased in full from Bookstore.

ENLIGHTENMENT

by Tara

ON THE VICISSITUDES OF LIFE AND LIVING . . .

This world is the mirror image of our desires and beliefs.

Reflections, however, contain distortions,

They are not the original,

Thus life is inherently disappointing.

Once understood, one need only deal with what is, and ones attitude to it.

To know this is to be somewhat enlightened.

To do this is to live - at that level - enlightened.

Aug 2, 2009 Day25

From the book; ENLIGHTENMENT, all rights reserved by Bhagavan Fdn