AFTER ENLIGHTENMENT WHAT?

by Tara

JUST PASSING THROUGH

A vast cloud of unknown dimension
Passes through the skies.
Gathering light and dust particles
In its midst as it sails by.
Ions clash
A lightning flash
Wars are waged and won
Lives gained and lost
Among the lot.
It continues on its way.
Expanding in air streams
Bounding through sun beams
All diversities near diffused.
Drifting and rising ever more abiding
It peacefully contemplates.
Till balanced at last
All within its body vast;
It blissfully sails for home.

A thought of the day in passing . . .

Is There Life After Enlightenment?

*I find that where one has made soul commitments;
prayers, promises, strong intent, heartfelt wishes,
the die is cast.*

And there, after Enlightenment, one's life will follow. . .
