A thought of the day in passing . . .

The Open Heart vs... 'Idiot Compassion'

People can and do impinge on one another's sovereignty by their desires . . . if one is open to it.

People, still in egos, are about self-created dramas. They will try to tempt, drag, or coerce you into being supporting actors in their dramas - just as they do to one another. You need not enter in. As an enlightened being one is in the world but not of it. Let others come to where you live, exist and have your being, in your higher Self - and do not be tempted and lost to the world and its dilemmas. To do the needful is not necessarily to do the desired of you, or others perceived 'right'.

Discriminating wisdom and spiritual discrimination must be acquired with the opened Divine Heart.
