AFTER ENLIGHTENMENT, WHAT?

by Tara

Stranger in a Strange Land

All this time I have been trying to appear like everybody else,
Different. . . . thinking, therefore, I must be wrong.

Only to find at journeys end I'd got it all turned around,
It was as me they were to become.

A thought of the day in passing . . .

'Knowing oneself' and 'Self remembrance' continues to be the name of the game, in never ending nuance.
