AFTER ENLIGHTENMENT, WHAT?

by Tara

PREDISPOSITION & ENLIGHTENMENT

From Ego to Realization

Some tend to internalize
While others externalize
Some are sensitive
Others have tougher hides

What difference the ego-life
From God Realization
If the difference but degree,
Mere magnification?

*What was in the acorn
Manifests as the tree
And what was in embryo fully comes to be.*

*Its all just the same!
Its entirely different.
About the same as..
A drop of water to an ocean.*

A thought of the day in passing . . .

Variations and Theme - On Helping

In the normal ego life; persons project their negative on the world, then heal it out there, by helping others, using one means or another, in Life's duality construct of I and Other. One might call them extroverts. But some will take negatives into themselves and work on it there, although still generally, in the context of I and Other. Such might be considered introverts.

(Psychologists have dissected and labeled the varieties of behavior in many and diverse ways. Here, we use these terms in a variation of their normal use.)

In the Enlightened life both forms of helping are used, but from a different understanding; 'All as I'. The guru will teach outwardly, one to one, using words; but it will be in the later form; working from the inside, soul to soul and energy transference that the real help takes place.
