

A thought of the day in passing . . .

FIRST THERE WAS THE WORD . . .

A word is a sound symbol come of a thought and accurately representing that thought and in its original pure form holy - with powers of creation.

But from the mouth of man, diminished, imbued with negation and distortion, it has lost its purity and power and become a thing perverted.

Oct 26, 2009 Day 47

By Tara, all rights reserved by Bhagavan Fdn.

The book; ENLIGHTENMENT, will be reprinted page by page daily on this site free and in full. For the less patient, the book may be purchased in full from Bookstore.

ENLIGHTENMENT

by Tara

ULTIMATELY GOD

There's only one ultimate truth. God is . . . and here, there are no words, no mind.

From that point on, are infinite variations on That . . . I-deas all, which get more complex,

More fragmented and . . . less 'Real' . . . as they fall from the inner space called mind . . . into the, seemingly solid outer space, we know as 'the world' . . .

And so it's said by the sages to be, lies, all lies.

Oct 26, 2009 Day 47

From the book; ENLIGHTENMENT, all rights reserved by Bhagavan Fdn